Genesis: In the Beginning

The fascinating book of Genesis describes prehistory, the story of Adam and Eve, the Flood, the patriarchal histories, and the story of Joseph and divine providence. It gives the background for millennia of human history, leading up to the last days prior to the Kingdom of God.

Class began Nov. 1. Since the classes are pre-recorded, they are available any time after 7 p.m. Central Time on the Wednesday night they are scheduled to run.

YALW Taking a Year Off

Since this coming year will be extremely busy with the new office building and with conducting training classes for our international ministry this winter, we have decided to take a year off from sponsoring the Young Adult Leadership Weekend in 2018. In place of the usual Presidents' Day weekend activity, we will have two special seminar presentations at this year's Winter Family Weekend in Louisville.

The first special seminar is titled "Five Major Messages for the Next Generation" and will be presented by Doug Horchak, operation manager for Ministerial Services. The second is "The Deciding Decade: Why Your 20s Are Important and What to Do With Them" and will be given by Dave Myers.

For those young adults who will not be able to attend in person, each session will be video recorded and posted on the Church's member website so that everyone can have access to the material.

While we know that not having a weekend retreat in 2018 will be disappointing to some, we are looking forward to re-vamping the YALW in 2019 to make it more inspiring and effective than ever.

WFW Webcasts

From Mark Winner, coordinator, Winter Family Weekend:

We are pleased to announce two webcasts from the Winter Family Weekend in Louisville on the weekend of Dec. 22-23. The Friday night Bible study webcast will start at 6:30 p.m. Central time, and the Sabbath service webcast will begin at 1:30 p.m. Central time. The webcast links will be available at cogwa.tv prior to the Sabbath. You can contact Mr. Ken Treybig for the password.

East Texas and Ruston will hookup to Sabbath Services from WFW. Services will begin at 1:30 p.m., but we are requested to be seated by 1:15 p.m. so the sound crew can test the webcast.
