Winter Family Weekend
This year’s Winter Family Weekend is just weeks away. Many of the same activities that have provided families with such an enjoyable few days together in the past are again planned for this year. At the same time, there are a few new additions. In some cases, it is very important that we have as accurate a count as possible in advance. For example, it is essential that we have an accurate count for the YALW reception on Sunday morning. What this means is, if you plan to attend the Winter Family Weekend (WFW), please take a couple of minutes this week to register and be sure to fill in the areas you plan to participate in. You can find registration information at https://members.cogwa.org/wfw/ or go directly to the registration portal at https://portal.cogwa.org/acct/.

Here are a few other items that will help you in planning and help us in preparing:
- The schedule of events is now available online at http://members.cogwa.org/wfw.
- This year we are offering a song leader/pianist workshop designed to help song leaders and pianists sharpen their skills. That will take place on Sunday evening, Dec. 23.
- Stay connected on any of the following:
  - Facebook: facebook.com/cogwaWFW
  - Twitter: @cogwa
  - Feel free to share with one another using #cogwawfw
- There will again be a clothing boutique for all mothers and grandmothers. If you have gently used children’s clothing you would like to donate or if you need some gently used children’s clothing, you can bring it and find it on Saturday night (Dec. 22).
- Don’t forget the themes of the Saturday night dances if you are interested in possibly winning a free night’s stay or cash.

If you would like to sing with the choir or are interested in sharing special music, please
Variety Show to Come

We will be having our next variety show on Feb. 16. We need performers as well as volunteers for stage crew, running the video camera, and helping in the sound booth. Think about how you would like to participate and stay tuned for more announcements.

Prayer Requests/Updates

Fred Patton came home from the hospital early this week. He will be undergoing several tests to measure for the size of the heart valve and check his kidney function. The Pattons really appreciate your prayers and ask that you continue to pray that he will be strong enough for the surgery soon and can get it scheduled quickly.
