Early Housing
Those who qualify to make early housing reservations can begin doing so on Monday, May 6. Members who qualify to make early reservations include:

3. Those who, due to dietary requirements, must have a kitchenette.
4. Those who have a large immediate family (six or more).

If you fit into one of these categories, please check with our Festival adviser who will be happy to assist you in finding satisfactory housing.

Also, for both dates, you can begin making reservations at 10 a.m. in the TIME ZONE of the SITE you are attending.

The theme for this conference is “Unless the Lord Builds the House”. Prayers for God’s blessing and guidance on all the presentations and activities would be greatly appreciated.

Foundation Institute

Foundation Institute is pleased to announce that we have accepted the first 18 applicants as students in next year’s program. More applications are currently in process and we hope to accept a second group of applicants prior to Passover.

Those who wish to attend next year and have not yet submitted an application should consider doing so soon. While our classroom capacity will be greater in our new facility, and the official deadline for applications is May 31, there is still the possibility of reaching capacity prior to the deadline. Early applications also enable us to make sure we have adequate student housing available. While we will accept applications after the deadline as long as there is room, we cannot promise housing for those who apply after that date.

Applications and admission information is located on the Foundation Institute website.

Prayer Requests/Updates

Mr. John Trotter and family extend their heartfelt thanks for your cards, prayers, and sympathy in the recent death of his mother, Helen B. Trotter.
