General Announcements

Next Sabbath

A webcast service will be available next Sabbath, Dec. 26, at 1 p.m. since Winter Family Weekend was cancelled. Be sure to take note of the change in our time of services next week and please be in your seats a few minutes early so we can make sure our webcast connection is working correctly.

In addition, seminars for teens and young adults will be webcast that morning. The details are listed on the member website. Click on the Calendars tab and select Church Calendar. At 9 a.m. there will be both a teen and young adult seminar available on the cogwa.tv website, presented by Mr. David Jackson and Mr. Joel Meeker respectively. At 10 a.m. there will be a seminar for both teens and young adults, presented by Mr. Andy Burnett. Replays will be available on the same website.

Picnic Meal & Bonfire

We are planning a picnic meal and bonfire for after service next Sabbath, Dec. 26—weather permitting—in place of the normal activity that has been planned for the WFW Saturday night in recent years. Since we cannot do social events indoors yet it will all be outdoors for those who are comfortable participating.

Plan to bring your own food and drink (or items for the fire or for grills that will be available) and enjoy some outdoor food and fellowship. It would be good if anyone wishing to make a grill available would bring it during the week. Contact the pastor or one of the deacons or elders to arrange to bring it to be locked inside the fence around the old pool area.

Remember to bring a change of clothes so you can dress appropriately for the temperature, which is never predictable around here. It could be spring-like or it could be cold, in which case the fire will feel extra nice!
