General Announcements

“Friday Night Live”

Mr. Mark Winner will present the next “Friday Night Live” Bible study Friday night, Jan. 15. The title is “Sex: God Gives and Satan Takes Away.” To connect, go to <http://members.cogwa.org/fnl/>.

McNeely Reception

There will be a reception for Melton and Judy McNeely after services on Jan. 23 beginning at 5 p.m. Refreshments will be provided.

Snacks

We are not able to serve food or have members bring food to share, but we are able to distribute pre-packaged snacks occasionally. Headquarters has requested that it not be done each week, so we will provide some limited pre-packaged snacks once a month on the last Sabbath of the month, starting with Jan. 30, along with individual waters.

Branson Weekend-Cancelled

From Mr. Blackwell: HOWDY! We are now only six weeks away from the date for the Branson President’s Day Family Weekend. We have waited as long as we could to make a call, but it appears that the better part of wisdom is to cancel the weekend for 2021, and plan for 2022. We have worked on every possibility we could think of and have come to the same conclusion. We could probably have services and the seminars with social distancing, but the other activities that are so much a part of the weekend would be impossible. This is very sad to me as so many people have come to really enjoy and anticipate it. But like so many other things this past year it would be unwise to try to have it. Let’s shoot for 2022!

Regional Teen Formal

Due to the ongoing issues regarding the virus, as expected, we have decided to postpone the Regional Teen Formal originally scheduled for Feb. 27. Presently, we are looking at options for hosting a teen formal later in the spring, provided conditions become safe enough for us to hold such an event. In the likely event we will be unable to do so, we will plan to acknowledge both sets of graduating seniors, the classes of 2021 and 2022, at next year’s formal! Andy Burnett
